

Witness God's Revelation

Exodus 3:1–15

Neil Trainer

February 18, 2024

NOTES

Witness God's Revelation

Exodus 3:1–15

Suggested Questions for Individual Study or Group Discussion*

- What is a place or location where you felt especially close to God, or where have you felt like you were on “holy ground”? When was that, and what did you do?
- Read Exodus 3:1–15. What details of this famous story are familiar? What, if anything, is new to you or simply catches your attention reading it now?
- What are some of the different ways in which the LORD God reveals himself to Moses? What would be the cumulative impact of these revelations upon Moses?
- What specifics can we learn about who the LORD is and what the LORD does from the revelations given to Moses? Which of these is especially significant or relevant for you right now?
- What tasks are given to Moses by the LORD? How should Moses bear witness to the Israelites about the revelation of God he has received? What is Moses to say and do?
- Read John 8:56–59. Based on what Jesus says and how the people respond, what claims is Jesus making about himself? In what ways is Jesus the revelation of the living God?
- In what ways do people today still respond with confusion and/or anger to the claims Jesus makes about himself? How should we, as followers of Jesus, respond in a Christ-like way?
- How can our church continue to grow in the ways we bear witness to the LORD and to God's works of liberation and deliverance? How can you (and your small group) increasingly be a part of that work? What will you do and for what will you pray?