Suggested Questions for Individual Study or Group Discussion*

- What is a food you could eat every day, or at least every week?
- Read Exodus 16:1–31. Where has the Israelite community come from and where are they going? Where are they in this chapter, and what challenges are they facing?
- What is the Israelites' attitude toward Moses and toward the LORD God? If you were in God's place, how would you have responded to the people? What does the LORD's response reveal about God's character?
- What requirements or stipulations come with God's gift of manna? How do the people respond? What would you have done?
- As God provides for the people's needs, what is God seeking to teach them? How is the LORD shaping them as individuals, families, and a community? How do we need to learn comparable lessons and be shaped similarly?
- Read John 6:25–59. How does Jesus apply to himself the events surrounding the Israelites receiving manna in the wilderness? What are the similarities and the differences between manna and the "bread of life"?
- What does Jesus claim he can provide for us and how? What must we do to receive all that Jesus seeks to give to us? What does eating of the bread of life look like for you?
- For what do you need to ask the Lord's provision this week? How will you trust God for that? How can your small group or others support and pray for you as you do this?
