May 10, 2026 • 10:00 AM

PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Lord of hope, as night workers long for the sunrise, we long for the coming of Christ.
In our worship today we yearn for your Spirit to give us a glimpse of your glory, that one day we will see in full, when all will be made new, through Christ, our Lord, our light.
Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

A Prayer for Mother’s Day

// We hope you enjoy the holiday!

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of motherhood. Today, we celebrate the loving sacrifice of mothers, both biological and spiritual, who nurture and guide us in your ways. Bless them with joy, strength, and love to continue their selfless devotion. May they feel deeply appreciated and honored not just today, but every day. Amen.

Little Volunteers at the Little Pantry

// by Sunny Coppin

After the service last Sunday, the Weschler boys helped stock the pantry, and they did a wonderful job. What a blessing to see our little ones serving our neighbors in need. While they were stocking, someone came by to pick up a few items – so the boys were able to experience the full cycle: gathering First Fruits donations, helping move items to the Chi House, stocking the pantry, and witnessing firsthand how the pantry is used. It was such a joy to watch their enthusiasm and care.

I’m also deeply grateful to their parents for encouraging and modeling this kind of service. It’s a gift to see families teaching their children what it looks like to care for others in such practical, compassionate ways.

The Dean girls will also be helping with the pantry, and I’m thankful for the way their family is nurturing a heart for service as well. What a blessing to see our young people stepping into this ministry with willing hearts.

Walk for Water Was Yesterday

// It’s not too late to donate!

Yesterday morning, the Calvin Walks 4 Water team gathered on the athletic field at Shoreline Christian school with other individuals and groups in the greater Seattle area for a walk that will impact lives. Even though the walk has ended, the goal remains: to fund groups of women in Kenya as they work together to purchase rain catchment tanks and solar panels – giving families access to clean water, basic electricity, and improved health.

At this time last year, Calvin’s team was leading the pack for fundraising. There is potential for us to lead again! We can continue to accept donations to support Calvin Walks 4 Water during the month of May. You may donate to Path From Poverty using Calvin’s giving page at calvincpc.org/donate-online/ or by simply writing a check to Calvin Church with “Path From Poverty - WFW” written on the memo line.

Messy Church Is Next Week

// Wednesday, May 13 in the Activity Center

May is officially here, and we are ready to celebrate! Join us next Wednesday for a jam-packed evening of faith, fellowship, and – of course – a little bit of a mess. We’ll focus on Matthew 4:19 and explore what it means to “fish for people” with a full menu of activities, including crafts, food, and games. Be sure to bring your family members and friends!

Richmond Beach Strawberry Festival

// A great opportunity to meet our Shoreline neighbors

It’s almost time for the Richmond Beach Strawberry Festival! The festival takes place this year on June 6th from 11 am to 3 pm. Calvin will be hosting a booth again, and we would love your help. If you have an idea about how to best use this time/space at the festival, reach out to Norm and be a part of the Festival Planning Team. If you would like to volunteer at the booth, there will be one-hour shifts available to at least four volunteers.

Happy Birthday!
