THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SONG OF SENDING "Great Is Thy Faithfulness"

BENEDICTION

The Churches of Revelation

// New Sunday sermon series begins today

While Revelation is most known for its extraordinary visions of God’s judgments on wickedness and the Lord’s ultimate triumph over evil, the book opens with a series of brief letters. These messages are direct from the resurrected Jesus to seven churches in first-century Asia Minor. Each letter contains affirmations and admonitions. Each letter is also an invitation to consider how our church might be similar.

If our Lord were to send Calvin Church a letter, what would he commend? What could he condemn? What might he command us to do?

Our early summer series will lead us through these questions as we look each week at a different one of the Churches of Revelation. We’ll be blessed as well to have multiple different preachers sharing throughout the series.

Join us each Sunday for worship at 10 am, either online or in person, as we listen together for God’s Word to us.

Congregational Meeting

// Today at 11:30 am

The Session has called a special congregational meeting after the worship service today to approve two matters relating to Calvin’s bylaws and the pastor’s terms of call.

All Calvin Church members are encouraged to attend and participate. This meeting will be in-person only.

Vision House: Partnering in Mission

// Jon and Jordyn’s testimony

Jon and Jordyn moved to Washington with their three young children, hoping for better job opportunities. The housing they arranged with a family friend turned out to be unsafe, so they chose to stay in their car with the kids while waiting for a shelter opening. When a spot finally opened, it was at a Women-and-Children-Only shelter, meaning Jon couldn’t join them. He didn’t hesitate — he slept in the car so his family could be warm and safe.

They continued working with the Vision House Diversion team, and when an apartment opened in the transitional housing program, they eagerly applied. Two weeks later, they were signing a lease and seeing their furnished home for the first time. Their children’s excitement — new bedding, stuffed animals, cozy blankets! — brought Jon and Jordyn to tears. They thanked Vision House and the Lord, saying they couldn’t believe how blessed they felt.

Reuniting the family after weeks apart was a joy for the Vision House team. Today, the kids are thriving in school and after-school programs, Jon has the job he hoped for, and Jordyn is back in school and now helps welcome new families. They’re grateful not only for housing but for the supportive community surrounding them.

Stories like Jon and Jordyn’s are only possible because of friends like you who support them along the way.
