

NOTES

- Who is someone you know to be wise or to practice wisdom? In what sphere of life do you know them to be wise?
- Why do you think the editors chose to open the book of psalms with this psalm?
- Why do you think the author chooses the metaphors they did for contrast in this psalm?
- Where have you experienced wisdom in your life? What steps have you taken to pursue wisdom?
- What is the law of God? What is its purpose and what is humanity's relationship to it? What does Jesus have to do with the law? (Matt 5:17)
- This psalm speaks of meditation on the law of God day and night? What do you think that means and what would it look like in your life?
- What do you notice about the two paths described in Ps 1:6? Why doesn't the path of the godly include a destination like that of the wicked?
- How can others pray with/for me?
