I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life
John 14:1-11

*Suggested Questions for Individual Study or Group Discussion

- What is your favorite room in your home? Why?
- Read John 14:1-11. Why would Jesus' disciples be troubled at this point?
- If Jesus is asking his disciples, both then and now, to believe or trust in him as they do in God, what does that reveal about who Jesus claims to be?
- What do the questions of Thomas and Philip reveal about their understanding of who Jesus is and what he came to do? Which do you relate to more and why?
- What direct claim does Jesus make about himself? How would you rephrase it in your own words?
- Why does this sort of claim make people feel uncomfortable? What objections do people raise?
- How do we proclaim and embody the claim of Jesus to others in a manner that reflects the example of Jesus? With whom specifically might you work to do that this week?
- What reasons does Jesus give for believing or trusting in him? How is this believing or trusting worked out in a person's life, particularly when his or her heart is troubled?
- What is causing your heart to be troubled this week? How do you hear Jesus encouraging you and/or exhorting you through the Gospel?
- How will you respond to Jesus' invitation to believe in him this week? How can your small group or others pray for you and support you in this through the coming week?
