NOTES

I Am the Resurrection and the Life
John 11:17-44

*Suggested Questions for Individual
Study or Group Discussion**

- When did you last attend a funeral or memorial service? What was it like?
- Read John 11:17-44. Based on their initial encounters with Jesus after Lazarus' death, how do Martha and Mary seem to view Jesus? How would you characterize their relationship?
- What does Jesus claim to be true about himself (v. 25-26)? What does this tell you about who Jesus is and what he came to do?
- What causes Jesus to be "deeply moved and troubled" (v. 33, 38) and even to weep (v. 35)? What does this emotional reaction reveal about Jesus?
- Why does Jesus raise Lazarus from the dead? What reasons does he give?
- What are some similarities between the raising of Lazarus and Jesus' own resurrection? What are the significant differences?
- When Jesus asks Martha, "Do you believe this?" (v. 26), what is he really asking? How do you respond as Jesus asks you that question?
- If death is not just the cessation of life but a power at work in our world and in us, how does Jesus' claim to be "the resurrection and the life" give you hope or challenge you? How do you hear Jesus calling you by name to "come out" of places of death?
- Who do you know that is being called by Jesus out of death and into life? What can you do this week to help someone take off their "grave clothes" and walk in freedom? How can your small group or others pray for you and support you in this through the coming week?
