

Resurrection and Our Stories
Romans 8:28-39

Matt Carpenter
April 15, 2018

NOTES

Resurrection and Our Stories
Romans 8:28-39

Suggested Questions for Individual
Study or Group Discussion*

- Where did your story start out? If someone asks you where you are from, how do you answer them?
- Read Romans 8:28-39. What would you say is the heart of what Paul is trying to communicate?
- Can you remember a time in your life when you felt the absence of God?
- How do you understand Martha's statement and Jesus response in John 11:21-22?
- What is the good Paul is referencing in Romans 8:28?
- Read Rom 8:29; Col 1:18. How is Jesus the firstborn of the dead? How do you see that affecting "many brothers and sisters"?
- What difference do you think Jesus resurrection makes for how we understand the story of our own lives?
- How do you describe Christ's love to someone else? Why is Paul convinced that nothing can separate us from his love? – Rom 8:38-39.
- What elements of your story do you hope will experience the hope of resurrection? How can others in your group pray for you in this?

Resurrection and Our Stories
Romans 8:28-39

Matt Carpenter
April 8, 2018

NOTES

Resurrection and the Body
Romans 8:28-39

Suggested Questions for Individual
Study or Group Discussion*

- Where did your story start out? If someone asks you where you are from, how do you answer them?
- Read Romans 8:28-39. What would you say is the heart of what Paul is trying to communicate?
- Can you remember a time in your life when you felt the absence of God?
- How do you understand Martha's statement and Jesus response in John 11:21-22?
- What is the good Paul is referencing in Romans 8:28?
- Read Rom 8:29; Col 1:18. How is Jesus the firstborn of the dead? How do you see that affecting "many brothers and sisters"?
- What difference do you think Jesus resurrection makes for how we understand the story of our own lives?
- How do you describe Christ's love to someone else? Why is Paul convinced that nothing can separate us from his love? – Rom 8:38-39.
- What elements of your story do you hope will experience the hope of resurrection? How can others in your group pray for you in this?