

Resurrection and Work
Revelation 5:6-14

NEIL TRAINER
May 6, 2018

NOTES

Resurrection and Work
Revelation 5:6-14

Suggested Questions for Individual
Study or Group Discussion*

- How would you reply to someone who said, "I think heaven will be boring?" Where in Scripture would you find support for your response?
- Read Revelation 5:6-14. Without decoding each apocalyptic image, who can you identify that is present in John's vision? What actions dominate this scene?
- How would you characterize the worship John witnesses? How would you compare and contrast this with our own worship?
- According to the elders' song, what will those ransomed or purchased for God do (Rev. 5:9-10)? What kind of creative and ongoing work might this include?
- Read Matthew 25:14-30. What is the message of Jesus' parable? How does our faithfulness with "a few things" in the present connect to "many things" after the Resurrection?
- What are the few things or "talents" which the Master has entrusted you? How would you rate yourself on your faithfulness with them?
- How does knowing that work continues in the new heaven and new earth affect how you view your work now? What about your work, if anything, would you like to approach differently in light of this?
- How can your small group or others pray for you and support you in this through the coming week?

Resurrection and Work
Revelation 5:6-14

NEIL TRAINER
May 6, 2018

NOTES

Resurrection and Work
Revelation 5:6-14

Suggested Questions for Individual
Study or Group Discussion*

- How would you reply to someone who said, "I think heaven will be boring?" Where in Scripture would you find support for your response?
- Read Revelation 5:6-14. Without decoding each apocalyptic image, who can you identify that is present in John's vision? What actions dominate this scene?
- How would you characterize the worship John witnesses? How would you compare and contrast this with our own worship?
- According to the elders' song, what will those ransomed or purchased for God do (Rev. 5:9-10)? What kind of creative and ongoing work might this include?
- Read Matthew 25:14-30. What is the message of Jesus' parable? How does our faithfulness with "a few things" in the present connect to "many things" after the Resurrection?
- What are the few things or "talents" which the Master has entrusted you? How would you rate yourself on your faithfulness with them?
- How does knowing that work continues in the new heaven and new earth affect how you view your work now? What about your work, if anything, would you like to approach differently in light of this?
- How can your small group or others pray for you and support you in this through the coming week?