

CONTENDER
Jude 1-25
NEIL TRAINER
June 17, 2018

NOTES

CONTENDER
Jude 1-25
Suggested Questions for Individual
Study or Group Discussion*

- Does the Christian Church in our society face greater challenges from the outside or from within? How do you support your answer?
- Read Jude 1-25. Why does Jude feel he needs to write this letter instead of writing about something else?
- What are the godless or ungodly doing that is a threat to the Church (v. 4)? How might this still happen in the Church today?
- How do the stories from Jewish history provide examples of what God may do in response? Do you think God may do something similar in our day? Why or why not?
- How does Jude exhort his readers to contend for the faith rather than contend against those who threaten them?
- In light of the challenges facing them, how do both Jude's address of his readers (v. 1-2) and his benediction (v. 24-25) give hope? How do these words give you hope as well?
- What is "the faith" for which Christians must still contend? What can make a Christian congregation vulnerable to false teaching today?
- Of Jude's practical exhortations to these early Christians, both for themselves (v. 20-21) and for one another (v. 22-23), which is most relevant for your life and circumstances? What are ways you can take this encouragement to heart?
- What is one thing you will do this week to respond to God's message for you through Jude? How can your small group or others pray for you and support you in this through the coming week?

CONTENDER
Jude 1-25
NEIL TRAINER
June 17, 2018

NOTES

CONTENDER
Jude 1-25

Suggested Questions for Individual
Study or Group Discussion*

- Does the Christian Church in our society face greater challenges from the outside or from within? How do you support your answer?
- Read Jude 1-25. Why does Jude feel he needs to write this letter instead of writing about something else?
- What are the godless or ungodly doing that is a threat to the Church (v. 4)? How might this still happen in the Church today?
- How do the stories from Jewish history provide examples of what God may do in response? Do you think God may do something similar in our day? Why or why not?
- How does Jude exhort his readers to contend for the faith rather than contend against those who threaten them?
- In light of the challenges facing them, how do both Jude's address of his readers (v. 1-2) and his benediction (v. 24-25) give hope? How do these words give you hope as well?
- What is "the faith" for which Christians must still contend? What can make a Christian congregation vulnerable to false teaching today?
- Of Jude's practical exhortations to these early Christians, both for themselves (v. 20-21) and for one another (v. 22-23), which is most relevant for your life and circumstances? What are ways you can take this encouragement to heart?
- What is one thing you will do this week to respond to God's message for you through Jude? How can your small group or others pray for you and support you in this through the coming week?