LUKE 18:1-8

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS FOR INDIVIDUAL

STUDY OR GROUP DISCUSSION*

- What is a situation in which you find yourself frequently losing patience? Why is it difficult to remain patient?
- Read Luke 18:1-8. According to Luke, why does Jesus tell this parable?
- In your own words, how would you describe the woman in Jesus' story? How would you describe the judge?
- How does the woman in the story eventually get a response from the judge? What motivates the judge to act?
- How is the judge like and/or dislike God?
- What would lead the Son of Man to find faith on the earth when he returns (v. 8)? What would such faithfulness look like?
- When are you tempted to stop praying faithfully or to give up praying completely (cf. v. 1)?
- In what situation or circumstance in your life do you long for God to bring justice? With what plea do you want to keep coming before God?
- How will you "pray and not give up"? What steps will you take? How can your small group or others pray for you and support you in this?
