SERVICE OF WORSHIP

9:00 am

JANUARY 20, 2019

Prayer of Preparation (in silence)

Holy, holy, holy God, we worship and adore you—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Today in our worship we long for a glimpse of your glory, seen perfectly in Christ, our Lord. As we worship, may we gain new insight about the mystery and wonder of your love. And may we sense new ways to mirror that love in our world, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Prayers of Confession

O God, who was and is and ever more shall be, who formed us from the dust of the earth yet calls us to eternal life: Forgive us when in narrow mindedness we focus only on the immediate and fail to see the eternal. Forgive us when we proudly profess our own relative goodness and fail to recognize Your pure Holiness. Forgive us when we ignore Your just judgment and recklessly count on Your amazing love. Forgive us when we give in to despair and give up on the hope that You make all things right in Your kingdom. Lord, forgive us according to Your grace that is ours in Jesus Christ. It is in his name that we continue to pray.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us;
 and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen

Upon the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls, they were described to be "...the greatest archeological find of the 20th century."

Scholars and theologians today continue to emphasize the importance the Dead Sea Scrolls because they are witnesses of a previously unknown Jewish group who collected pre-Christian religious literature and who seem to have influenced early Christianity. Join Biblical Scholar and Dead Sea Scrolls researcher, Felipe Ocampo for a four week class by Kaleidoscope Academy, an outreach ministry of First Presbyterian Church of Snohomish.
