Preparation for Worship

Psalm 95:1-3 (NLT)

Come, let us sing to the LORD! Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation. Let us come to him with thanksgiving. Let us sing psalms of praise to him. For the LORD is a great God, a great King above all gods.

O Come and Sing Unto the Lord – #214

Prayers of Confession

O Triune God, sovereign over all nations and faithful through all generations: Forgive us for not heeding Your call to remember. We take for granted living in a nation that has received from Your hand the gifts of peace and liberty. We overlook those who served their country in its hour of need, and even gave their lives in that service. We neglect Your command to care for the widow and the orphan, those left in grief by a loved one's ultimate sacrifice. We discount the cost of freedom in a world enslaved to darkness and fear, injustice and oppression. We look quickly past the violence of the Cross on which our Savior's blood was shed to free us from sin. We stop praying for blessed peacemakers, for the fullness of Your kingdom to come, for war to be no more. Free us from the chains of forgetfulness, we pray. Help us, O God, to remember Your faithfulness and to receive Your mercy as we confess our sins to You in these silent moments.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us;

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
